

The McMichael
Lecture Series
AT ST. PAUL'S

The Very Rev. Scott RICHARDSON

How can we LIVE TOGETHER
when we believe different things?

7 pm Thursday Nov. 11

The Very Rev. Scott Richardson, Dean of Saint Paul's Cathedral, San Diego, thinks the process through which we move through conflicts and disagreements in the church is probably more important than the eventual outcome. He sees himself as a participant and a pastor in the church's work about same-sex relationships—a work that is still in process. In his view, “part of the church is transfixed on the issue and part of the church is burned out on it.” Richardson wants the church to “work hard to care for one another as we walk through conflict.”

A reception for Dean Richardson will follow the lecture, which is open to the public. No admission charge. Childcare provided in the parish nursery.
